

Formally appointed OilPro Distributors adhere to certain undertakings and standards and are supported by Electronic Art Display CC, developer and manufacturer of the OilPro Oil Management System. (Product support, training on installing and maintaining OilPro Products etc.)

BENEFITS:

1. To Accredited Distributors

- Distributors may qualify for discounts.
- Distributors are recognized formally on the OilPro web site and in promotional material.
- Possible sales leads originating in their areas are referred to Distributors.
- Distributors receive OilPro training and support.
- Distributors have the leverage of Accredited Distributor status when quoting.

2. To Oil Companies

- Oil Companies receive a list of accredited OilPro Distributors and are assured that these distributors receive support from the developer/ manufacturer. This helps to avoid problems caused by faulty installations, use of underrated ancillary equipment and installers who are not trained properly, translating into cost saving for the oil company.
