

Levels of Control

Level 3 - Job card & Quantity Validation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ System logs all transactions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Job number used ○ User that dispensed ○ Group / Cost centre ○ Vehicle type ○ Bay dispensed at ○ Date/Time of dispensing ○ Quantity dispensed ○ Times Job number used ○ Vehicle registration number ◆ System checks the validity of the job number used, i.e. only job numbers in system software are allowed by the system. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Job card has to be created before oil can be dispensed ○ Quantity allowed limited to what is specified in job card when job card is created. ○ Incorrect / invalid job numbers will be blocked. No dispensing is allowed with invalid job numbers ○ System displays quantity allowed on keypad. ○ System will only dispense quantity allowed on job card, not more. ◆ Job card has to be closed (Except with Kerridge integration). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ System and computer is interactive, i.e. if computer is off, no dispensing will be allowed. ◆ If computer is off (e.g. over weekends) the mechanic can dispense by using his 3 digit code issued to him only to use as the first 3 digits of his job numbers. ◆ Administrator will be able to dispense on any job number and any quantity even if computer is off.

Dispensing process with Level 3 Control activated

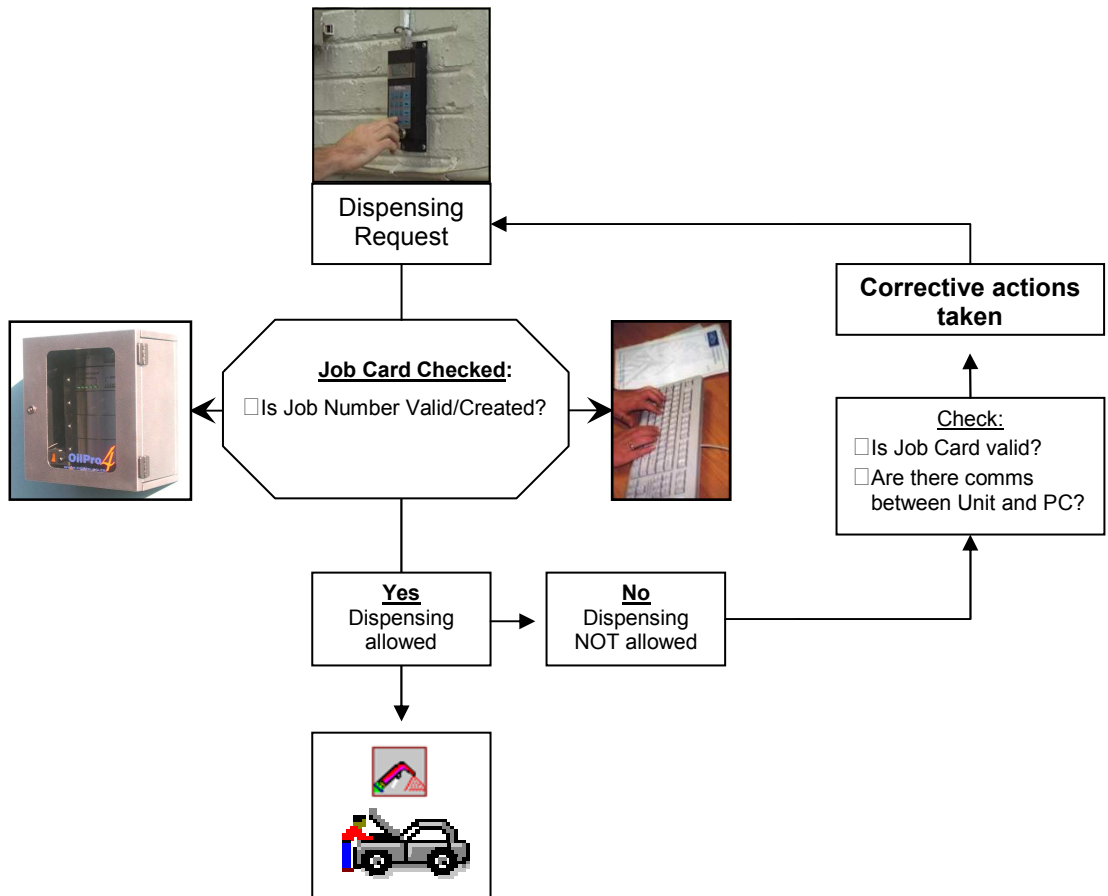

For instructions on how and where to activate the Levels of Control please contact OilPro at 011 892 0623 or orders@oilpro.co.za

Level 2 - Job card Validation

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ System logs all transactions as well as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Job number used ○ User that dispensed ○ Group / Cost centre ○ Vehicle type ○ Date/Time of dispensing ○ Quantity dispensed ○ Vehicle registration number ○ Bay dispensed at ◆ System checks the validity of the job number used, i.e. only job numbers created in system software is allowed by the system. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Job card has to be created before oil can be dispensed ○ Incorrect / invalid job numbers will be blocked. ○ No dispensing is allowed with incorrect job numbers. ◆ Job card has to be closed so no further dispensing on job number can take place ◆ System doesn't check for the quantity allowed, i.e. any quantity is allowed. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ System and computer is interactive, i.e. if computer is off, no dispensing will be allowed. ◆ If computer is off (e.g. over weekends) the mechanic can dispense by using his 3 digit code issued to him only to use as the first 3 digits of his job numbers. ◆ Administrator will be able to dispense on any job number and any quantity even if computer is off. |
|--|--|

Dispensing process with Level 2 Control activated

Level 1 - Basic Control
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ System logs all transactions as well as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Job number used ○ User that dispensed ○ Bay dispensed at ○ Date/Time of dispensing ○ Quantity dispensed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ System doesn't check the validity of the job number used, i.e. any job number is allowed. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ No job card has to be created on the system software. ◆ System doesn't check for the quantity allowed, i.e. any quantity is allowed. ◆ The job card is created by the technician on the Keypad and will be listed in the Active Job card Database under Accounting Integration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ System and computer is not interactive, i.e. if computer is off, dispensing will be allowed.

Dispensing process with Level 1 Control activated

